6.1 Verbal Update - Approved CPAC Terms Of Reference

B. Kittmer provided a verbal update of the approved Community Policing Advisory Committee (CPAC) terms of reference.

7. DELEGATIONS

None.

8. REPORTS

8.1 Monthly Policing Statistics

S. Pilon and S. Bentley reviewed the report and answered questions of the committee.

Member Stam inquired as to the increased use of methamphetamine in the County. In response, S. Pilon indicated that this has been the historic drug of choice in Perth County. The OPP have actively worked on this issue, and have established the "Meth Task Force". The OPP efforts have reduced the usage of the drug, but it has not been eradicated.

S. Bentley indicated that fentanyl is viewed as the next emerging issue for drugs in the County. All OPP officers are now trained on administering naloxone.

Member Stam inquired on car thefts. S. Bentley responded that the significant majority of vehicles stolen in Perth County are those that have the keys left in them. The OPP has implemented education campaigns because almost all thefts are preventable.

Moved By F. Stam

Seconded By P. McAsh

THAT the January 2018 OPP Monthly Report be received.
