St. Marys 2018/February

	PC Dekoning has been maintaining a presence in the homes within Perth County that provide housing and daily assistance to individuals that are not capable of living independently. Mental health issues are the main reason the residents require assisted living. Police often become involved in calls for service involving the residents from calls being initiated by staff at the homes or the residents themselves. PC Dekoning has developed a positive relationship with the management of these homes in an attempt to offer additional assistance and to provide an element of accountability from a Police perspective. PC Dekoning has been welcomed in to the four homes within Perth County and attends these locations on a regular basis. Officers in Perth County had been dealing with a youth continuously over the previous number of months. The calls for service were escalating to an almost daily occurrence which included the Police apprehending the youth under the Mental Health Act and transporting them to the local hospital. PC Dekoning had also been involved with the youth and their family and attended meetings with other community partners that are also involved. Police played a major role in the youth eventually being removed from the home as their family could no longer safely care for them. PC Dekoning and Sgt Bentley spent an entire shift at the home with the youth and their family. A number of agencies were contacted and the youth was eventually removed from the home by the Children's Aid Society. Incidents that conclude in this manner are very difficult but during this process, it was evident that PC Dekoning had successfully built positive relationships with the social agencies involved. PC Dekoning has begun his anti-opiate presentations in North Perth. They are being presented in conjunction with Choices for Change. A media release will be sent out shortly and further presentations throughout the county will be scheduled. Police investigated nine Mental Health Act calls in St. Marys during the month of February, up from four in January.
