7. DELEGATIONS

7.1 Cody Cunningham re: St. Marys Community Development and Support

Cody Cunningham presented information about his role as the Community Developer and Support Worker for the Town of St. Marys. Melissa Stevens, BSW, MSW Candidate observed the meeting as a social work placement student.

The Community Developer and Support Worker role was created as a response to the needs of the Town to help individuals navigate the mental health and addiction system. Cody Cunningham will serve as a point of connection for resources and meet with the community for supportive or referral conversations. Meetings can be held virtually or in-person and can be hosted at some Town facilities or in public outdoor spaces.

Cody Cunningham works out of Stratford at Family Services Perth-Huron and can be reached at 519-273-1020 ext. 110 for more information.

Moved By: Kyle Burnside

Seconded By: Amie Rankin

THAT the presentation by Cody Cunningham be accepted as information.

Carried

7.2 Andrea Macko re: Strong as Stone Sculpture Contest

Andrea Macko, Events Coordinator for the Town of St. Marys, presented on upcoming Town events. Due to COVID-19, no large events such as Heritage Festival or Homecoming will be happening this year. Outdoor gatherings will need contact tracing and will likely have a maximum of up to 100 participants.

Canada Day will have a virtual flag raising and may have a home and business decorating contest, along with a Canada Day parade. A sculpture and rock painting exhibit related to the Strong as Stone slogan may be hosted when restrictions lift. Local businesses may be invited to display submissions in their windows.

Kelly Deeks-Johnson added that the St. Marys Farmers Market will be relocating to Milt Dunnell Field. They will open for the season on May 22, 2021 and will operate on Saturday mornings until the last weekend of October 2021. This will help bring people into the downtown over the summer months.

Moved By: Amie Rankin

Seconded By: Kyle Burnside

THAT the presentation by Andrea Macko be accepted as information.

PICK UP YOUR NEW ST. MARYS KEEPSAKE TOTE

The Rotary Club of St. Marys is proud to introduce a newly designed tote bag to help promote the town that's "Strong As Stone". Get yours while supplies last at participating business retailers!

The totes will become a keepsake memory for tourists and residents. They meet new standards for environmental responsibility by reducing use of plastic, and they feature scenic views depicting the beauty of the town worth living in.

Thank you to our sponsors!
