

A Living Library Event

WRITE ON!

a Local Author panel

WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 8TH

7PM

TOWN HALL AUDITORIUM

FREE TICKETS AVAILABLE AT THE LIBRARY.
LIMITED TICKETS AVAILABLE AT THE DOOR.

Join us on February 8th for a meeting of creative minds. This Living Library panel discussion will explore the ideas and experience of four authors who prove that big ambitions aren't limited by the small towns where they originate. Learn about how these authors went about writing, making connections and ultimately publishing their work. Arrive with an open mind and be prepared to leave inspired!

Moderator: Sarah Andrews

Sarah Andrews is the CEO of the Library.

C.J. BANKS

Banks' first novel Dad Jokes and Pine Cones was released in 2021 and shortlisted for Kobo's Emerging Writer Prize 2022 and was listed as one of Kobo's "must-read books" for Mental Health Awareness Month.

EMM GRYNER

Gryner is known for her 20-plus year music career, her 2021 debut The Healing Power of Singing: Raise Your Voice, Change Your Life (What Touring With David Bowie, Single Parenting and Ditching The Music Business Taught me in 25 Easy Steps) shed light on Gryner's personal existence during this time.

ANDREA MACKO

Andrea Macko is a nationally published journalist/columnist whose work has appeared in The Globe and Mail and metropolitan daily newspapers. Local readers will remember her as a reporter and columnist for the now-defunct St. Marys Journal Argus.

JAN SCOTT

Jan Scott is a seasoned cookbook author whose body of work includes the Globe and Mail bestseller Oven to Table, Gold winner of the 2020 Taste Canada awards in the Best Single Subject Cookbook category. In addition to working on her first novel, she is also the owner of Betty's Bookshelf, a quaint independent book store in St. Marys.
